

Cascade Pass Guided Hike

Saturdays at 10 am, July 4 – September 5

Join a ranger for a moderate to strenuous three-hour guided hike to a high mountain pass and explore the natural history of a scenic wilderness area. The Cascade Pass Trail climbs 2,000 feet along a 3.7 mile route through forest and open subalpine ecosystems. After the program concludes at the pass, return at your own pace. This 7.4 mile roundtrip hike takes five to six hours to complete.

Cascade Pass Trailhead is located 23 miles from Marblemount, WA, at the end of the Cascade River Road.

Reservations are required. To make a reservation call (206)386-4495 or sign up in person at the North Cascades Visitor Center in Newhalem, open daily from 9 am to 6 pm. Not recommended for small children.

View looking southeast from Cascade Pass